- Reservation deposit is refundable if cruise is cancelled within 10 days prior to cruise date only.
- In the event of unforeseen circumstances deposit may be transferred to another date within 30 days of cruise date.
- $3.00 per nautical mile fuel surcharge applies for custom charters in excess of 10 nautical miles from port of embarkation.

Captain: The "Charterer" understands that the M/Y Nauti Pleasure is a recreational "demise" bare-boat charter operation. All applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and conditions of such designation as a Recreational Bareboat Charter is in effect and is agreed upon between the contract parties. Captain services are not included in the charter fee. The Charterer is aware that they are responsible for the safe navigation of the vessel by means of contracting a qualified licensed Captain, no less than a Master 25 gross domestic tons capable of carrying passengers for hire. The charterer understands that the M/Y Nauti Pleasure is a recreational "demise" bare-boat charter operation. The Charterer shall be responsible for any independent contractor payments to the Captain separate from the fees associated with the charter boat rental.

Damages: It is agreed that the M/Y Nauti Pleasure is to be returned in the same exact condition as when it was released to the charter party. Damages sustained while vessel is on charter unrelated to normal wear and tear are the full financial responsibility of the charter party whether intentional, accidental or a result of negligence. If damages and/or repairs should exceed the amount of the security damage deposit, the charter party agrees to be financially responsible for damages up to the full amount of the owner's per incident insurance deductible which equals two percent (2%) of the declared hull value ($110,000.00 USD) or Two Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($2,200.00).

Catering: The Charterer is allowed to bring all their own food and beverages. The Charterer is responsible for any items required for the proper service of such food and beverage unless otherwise contracted. The charterer and their guests assume responsibility for all catering and cruise costs should the Charterer decide to cancel the charter due to weather conditions or any other reasons. M/Y Nauti Pleasure is not responsible for consequences arising from or associated with adverse weather. In the event of rain reserved charter times will go as scheduled. If weather precludes a charter, charter will be held dockside until weather improves or until scheduled cruise time expires. M/Y Nauti Pleasure shall not be responsible for Charterer's catering costs associated with any postponed, rescheduled or cancelled charter Injury/Death: The Charterer is responsible for the actions and safety of their party while on Charter. The Charterer agrees that the potential for death and/or injury to themselves and/or their passengers are an inherent factor aboard a recreational bare-boat chartered vessel. The Charterer agrees that circumstances resulting in death or injury exist beyond the reasonable control of the Owner of the vessel. The Charterer agrees that all passengers boarding the Nauti Pleasure do so voluntarily and at their own risk for injury or death. The Charterer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Owner of the Nauti Pleasure from claims arising from the Charterer's passengers or themselves which result in accidental death or injury.

Verification: This document represents a contractual agreement between Nauti Pleasure and the Charterer. An e-mail transmission (e-mail) with an electronic signature shall be deemed to be an original and an acceptance of the contract terms. Customer agrees to pay all cost of collections including reasonable attorney's fees. Returned check fee is $30.00. Declined credit card fee is $30.00.
